

OUR PRIVACY POLICY

Plants Of Texas respects the privacy of visitors to our website and the privacy of our customers. We take your privacy seriously. We will not collect personal information about any visitor to our website, unless the visitor is made aware that we are collecting such information. We ensure that any information that is collected is collected in a secure and safe encrypted manner.

Currently, we would collect personal information for the following reasons:

- Product Purchase: We will use your information ONLY to process your order, ship your order, answer questions about products and advise you of other product related information.
- Newsletter Registration/Availability: We will use your information ONLY to email you a newsletter or availability.
- Promotional Material/Specials: We will use your information ONLY to email you promotions/specials that we may be offering.

We would/will collect the following kinds of information:

Your name, address, email address, phone number(s), credit card number and or billing information. Credit card and billing information is used ONLY to process your order and to bill to your account or to charge your debit/credit card for the payment of your order.

We value your privacy and do not sell your email address to outside companies. By providing us with your contact information, you agree to receive informational emails about your order and specials from Plants Of Texas, as well as from our related companies. You may opt out of receiving future emails by clicking the "unsubscribe" button on the bottom of any promotional email or newsletter.
